Church Covenant

God, by His sovereign grace and omnipotent love alone, has led me to repent of my sin and believe on Jesus Christ, trusting Him alone as my Savior and Lord. As one who has been baptized by immersion as a believer in Christ, I desire to unite with this church family. Therefore, I enter into a covenantal relationship with the members of this church. In humble reliance upon the Holy Spirit, I endeavor, so long as my conscience allows me, to pursue the following:

- 1) To meet together for any and all services on each Lord's Day, as the Lord shall give me opportunity, to serve and glorify Him in His worship, to edify one another, and to work together for the good of His church¹
- 2) To diligently guard the truth, upholding the standard of sound words recorded in Scripture² and reflected in our *Confession of Faith*³
- 3) To avoid participation in any secret society which violates the Scriptures or our Confession of Faith
- 4) To wholeheartedly support, love, and care for the church's ministries and members, offering: my prayers,⁴ my financial gifts of tithes and offerings,⁵ my service⁶
- 5) To boldly witness for the Lord Jesus Christ, living a transformed life and proclaiming the gospel as the Lord guides my steps⁷
- 6) To actively pursue personal holiness before God, loving others as Christ has loved us⁸
- 7) To promote the unity of the church, being a peacemaker with all in the body of Christ⁹
- 8) To respectfully follow the elders and other leaders of this church, trusting and supporting their leadership¹⁰
- 9) To humbly submit to the church's discipline, graciously repenting when approached about personal sin, and lovingly restoring others who become entangled in sin if they should come to repentance¹¹
- 10) To be active in the work of the ministries of the local church, unless providentially hindered¹²
- 11) I also purpose to maintain family and private worship; if God has given me children, to train my children according to the Bible, to walk carefully in the world, to be just in my dealings, faithful in my engagements, and appropriate in my conduct, to avoid gossip, not speaking that which is evil, and to avoid unrighteous anger, to abstain from all forms of activity which dishonor my Lord Jesus Christ, cause stumbling to a fellow believer or hinder bringing a soul to Christ, to be zealous in my efforts to advance the cause of Christ our Savior, and to give Him preeminence in all things.¹³

12) I also purpose to guard the biblical structure of the family opposing all forms of abortion and homosexuality.

13) I further purpose to encourage my fellow brethren in the blessed hope of our Lord's return, to watch over one another in brotherly love, to remember each other in prayer, to aid each other in sickness and distress, to cultivate Christian sympathy in feelings and courtesy in speech, to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation.¹⁴

14) I moreover purpose that if I remove from this place, I will seek to as soon as possible to unite with some other church of like faith and practice where I can carry out the spirit of this covenant and other principles of God's Word.¹⁵

This covenant I make in the presence of Almighty God, the Searcher of all hearts, with a true intention to fulfill my obligations, as I shall answer at the Last Day, when the secrets of all hearts shall be disclosed. I most humbly beseech the Lord to strengthen me by His Holy Spirit for this end, and for His glory and honor.

Confession of Faith

The following is an abbreviated summary of our doctrinal statement. For a fuller statement of faith please see the 1689 Baptist Confession of Faith in your packet.

1. Of the Scriptures¹⁶

We believe that the Holy Bible was written by men moved by God, that it is inspired by God, and is a perfect treasure of heavenly instruction;^a that it has God for its author, salvation for its end,^b and truth without any mixture of error for its matter,^c that it reveals the principles by which God will judge us,^d and therefore is, and shall remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian union,^e and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and opinions should be tried.^f

2. Of the True God¹⁷

We believe that there is one, and only one, living and true God, an infinite, intelligent Spirit, whose name is Jehovah, the Maker and Supreme Ruler of Heaven and earth,^a inexpressibly glorious in holiness,^b and worthy of all possible honor, confidence, and love;^c that in the unity of the Godhead there are three persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit;^d equal in every divine perfection,^e and executing distinct and harmonious offices in the great work of redemption.^f

3. Of the Fall of Man¹⁸

We believe that man was created in holiness, under the law of his Maker;^a but by voluntary transgression fell from that holy and happy state;^b in consequence of which all mankind are now sinners,^c without exception are accountable for sin;^d being by nature utterly void of that holiness required by the law of God, positively inclined to evil; and therefore under just condemnation to eternal ruin,^e without defense or excuse.^f

4. Of the Way of Salvation¹⁹

We believe that the salvation of sinners is wholly of grace^a, through the mediatorial offices of the Son of God,^b who by the appointment of the Father, freely took upon Him our nature, yet without sin,^c honored the divine law by His personal obedience,^d and by His death made a full atonement for our sins;^e that having risen from that death, He is now enthroned in heaven^f and uniting in His wonderful person the most tender sympathies with divine perfections; He is every way qualified to be a suitable, a compassionate, and an all-sufficient Savior.^g

5. Of Justification²⁰

We believe that the great gospel blessing which Christ^a secures to such as believe in Him is Justification, that Justification^b includes the pardon of sin,^c and the promise of eternal life on principles of righteousness;^d that it is bestowed, not in consideration of any works of righteousness which we have done, but solely through faith in the Redeemer's blood;^e by virtue of which faith His perfect righteousness is freely imputed to us of God;^f that it brings us into a state of most blessed peace and favor with God, and secures every other blessing needful for time and eternity.^g

6. Of the Freeness of Salvation²¹

We believe that the blessings of salvation are made free to all by the gospel;^a that it is the immediate duty of all to accept them by a cordial, penitent, and obedient faith;^b and that nothing prevents the salvation of the greatest sinner on earth but his own inherent depravity and voluntary rejection of the gospel;^c which rejection involves him in an aggravated condemnation.^d

7. Of Grace in Regeneration²²

We believe that, in order to be saved, sinners must be regenerated, or born again;^a that regeneration consists in giving a holy disposition to the mind;^b that it is effected in a manner above our comprehension by the power of the Holy Spirit, in connection with divine truth^c so as to secure our voluntary obedience to the gospel^d; and that its proper evidence appears in the holy fruits of repentance, and faith, and newness of life.^e

8. Of Repentance and Faith²³

We believe that Repentance and Faith are sacred duties, and also inseparable graces, wrought in our souls by the regenerating Spirit of God;^a whereby being deeply convinced of our guilt, danger, and helplessness, and of the way of salvation by Christ,^b we turn to God with sincere contrition, confession, and supplication for mercy^c at the same time heartily receiving the Lord Jesus Christ as our Prophet, Priest, and King, and relying on Him alone as the only and all-sufficient Savior.^d

9. Of God's Purpose of Grace²⁴

We believe that Election is the eternal purpose of God, according to which He graciously regenerates, sanctifies, and saves sinners;^a that being perfectly consistent with the individual responsibility of man, it comprehends all the means in connection with the end;^b that it is a most glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, being infinitely free, wise, holy, and unchangeable;^c that it utterly excludes boasting, and promotes humility, love, prayer, praise, trust in God, and active imitation of His free mercy;^d that it encourages the use of means in the highest degree;^e that it may be ascertained by its effects in all who truly believe the gospel;^f that it is the foundation of Christian assurance;^g and that to ascertain it with regard to ourselves demands and deserves the utmost diligence.^h

10. Of Sanctification²⁵

We believe that Sanctification is the process by which, according to the will of God, we are made partakers of His holiness;^a that it is a progressive work;^b that it is begun in regeneration;^c and that it is carried on in the hearts of believers by the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, the Sealer and Comforter, in the continual use of the appointed means-especially the Word of God, self-examination, self-denial, watchfulness, and prayer.^d

11. Of the Perseverance of Saints²⁶

We believe that such only are real believers as endure unto the end;^a that their persevering attachment to Christ is the grand mark which distinguishes them from superficial professors^b that a special Providence watches over their welfare;^c and they are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.^d

12. Of the Harmony of the Law and the Gospel²⁷

We believe that the Law of God is the eternal and unchangeable rule of His moral government;^a that it is holy, just, and good;^b and that the inability which the Scriptures ascribe to fallen men to fulfill its precepts arises entirely from their love of sin;^c to deliver them from which, and to restore them through a Mediator to sincere obedience to the holy Law, is one great end of the Gospel, and of the means of grace connected with the establishment of the visible Church.^d

13. Of a Gospel Church²⁸

We believe that a visible Church of Christ is a congregation of baptized believers^a associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the gospel;^b observing the ordinances of Christ^c governed by His laws^d and exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word;^e that its only scriptural officers are Bishops, or Pastors, and Deacons,^f whose qualifications, claims, and duties are defined in the Epistles to Timothy and Titus.

14. Of Baptism and the Lord's Supper²⁹

We believe that Christian Baptism is the immersion in water of a believer^a into the name of the Father, and Son, and Holy Spirit;^b to show forth, in a solemn and beautiful emblem, our faith in the crucified, buried, and risen Savior, with its effect in our death to sin and resurrection to a new life;^c that it is prerequisite to the privileges of a Church relation; and to the Lord's Supper;^d in which the members of the Church, by the sacred use of bread and wine, are to commemorate together the dying love of Christ;^e preceded always by solemn self-examination.^f

15. Of the Lord's Day³⁰

We believe that the first day of the week is the Lord's Day,^a and that it is a Christian institution for regular observance.^b It commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the dead^c and should include exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private.^d Activities on the Lord's Day should be commensurate with the Christian's conscience and is to be a preparation for that Rest that remains for the people of God.^e

16. Of Civil Government³¹

We believe that civil government is of divine appointment, for the interests and good order of human society,^a and that magistrates are to be prayed for, conscientiously honored and obeyed;^b except only in things opposed to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ,^c who is the only Lord of the conscience, and the Prince of the kings of the earth.^d

17. Of the Righteous and the Wicked³²

We believe that there is a radical and essential difference between the righteous and the wicked;^a that such only as through faith are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and sanctified by the Spirit of our God, are truly righteous in His esteem;^b while all such as continue in impenitence and unbelief are in His sight wicked, and under the curse;^c and this distinction holds among men both in and after death.^d

18. Of the World to Come³³

We believe that the end of the world is approaching;^a that at the Last Day Christ will descend from heaven,^b and raise the dead from the grave to final accounting; that a solemn separation will then take place;^d that the wicked will be adjudged to endless punishment, and the righteous to endless joy;^e and that this judgment will fix forever the final state of men in heaven or hell, on principles of righteousness.^f
